BEWARE: JUDGES MAKE POLICIES

Federal Judges are extremely important in determining policies for America. Federal Judges are appointed by the President, who, in turn, must be approved by Congress. Republicans normally vote for Judges who are conservative and seek to adhere to the original meaning or intent of the Constitution. Democrats normally favor activist or progressive Judges. The latter take great liberty when interpreting the Constitution, which they see as a "living document". They have been given to making new laws rather than interpreting laws made by Congress. This leads to policies. The Lesson here is that we must vote for a Presidential candidate who shall nominate conservative Judges.

VOTING THE PARTY RATHER THAN THE CANDIDATE

The Republican Party normally has advocated

- smaller government
- lower taxes
- strong military defense
- traditional moral standards regarding abortion and Marriage
- promotion of free market economies

The Democratic Party generally advocates

- larger government
- higher taxes
- negotiations rather than superior military force in dealing with enemies
- liberal moral standards re Abortion and Gay Marriage
- promotion of a socialist-leaning economy
